

REMARKS/ARGUMENTS

The substitute specification submitted with the Amendment of July 24, 2006 has been further amended to correct translation/typographical errors not earlier noted present in the text of the application as filed. A redundant passage on page 7 is deleted. On page 5 of the text a sentence in the original text of the Chinese application was omitted and on page 19 the percentages were reversed.

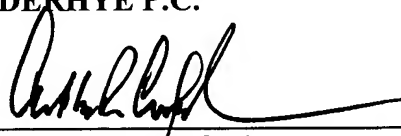

These clarifications are consistent with the content of the prior applications from which priority is claimed. The contents of the underlying Chinese application 01106124.3 and International Application PCT/CN02/00047 have been incorporated by reference in the original application papers; see the transmittal sheet dated August 1, 2003. No new matter has been added.

Consideration of this Amendment along with the Amendments filed July 24, 2006 and June 6, 2006 is requested.

Respectfully submitted,

NIXON & VANDERHYTE P.C.
